Candidates Announced for Association Board; Ballots to be Back by Nov. 23

Machinery was set in motion this week for the annual election of Orinda Association directors, with deadline for ballots to be turned in scheduled for November 23.

That is the date of next month's Board of Directors meeting, and expectations are that all ballots will have been received by then so that the votes can be tallied shortly afterward and the five new directors can assume their posts for two-year terms promptly at the beginning of 1954.

THE FOLLOWING candidates were announced at the Civic Affairs Committee meeting in Orinda School library Monday night by Tevis Thompson, nominating committee chairman:

District 1 (Sleepy Hollow area — County Election Precincts Alhambra 3 and Orinda 7) — Robert Boyle, Joseph Nicolet.

District 2 (Country Club area — County Election Precincts Orinda 4 and 15) — Ralph Hickox, Joe F. Conley.

District 4 (Orinda Oaks and Los Amigos area — County Election Precincts Orinda 10 and 11) — Harold N. Neeland, Clinton Easterbrook.

District 5 (Orinda Park Pool area — County Election Precincts Orinda 1 and 16) — James Davison, Mrs. Stuart (Jean) Henderson.

District 9 (Moraga Del Rey area — County Election Precincts Orinda 9 and 13) — J. Lee Center, Harold Rote.

BALLOTS WILL BE prepared immediately and mailed to Orindans by the ballot committee of Civic Affairs. Named to this committee Monday night by Joseph Creighton, acting chairman of Civic Affairs, were:

Anne Sanford, chairman; Tevis Thompson and Andy Blalock. Mrs. Sanford is recording secretary of the Civic Affairs Committee.

After the mailing of the ballots an intensive telephone drive will be conducted, to spur the return of ballots and to remind Orindans that in order to be eligible to vote in the association election they must pay their 1954 dues. Those who have not already paid their 1954 dues will be asked to remit them with their marked ballots.

THE ORINDA JUNIOR Womans' Club will do the telephoning. The offer of this recently organized group to perform this service, reported by Mrs. Sanford, was gladly accepted by the Civic Affairs delegates.

Mrs. Sanford and Peter Veitch, association president, said that the Orinda Junior Woman's Club is eager to participate in community civic projects.

Civic Affairs members expressed appreciation of the public-spirited attitude of the women's club.

IN ANNOUNCING the candidates, Thompson pointed out that all are willing to serve on the board. One candidate will be elected from each of the five association districts where a vacancy occurs.

With Thompson on the nominating committee are Creighton, Veitch and Mrs. Sanford.

Creighton instructed the ballot committee to obtain statements from the candidates. These statements are to be printed along with the ballots and will be distributed with them.

The acting Civic Affairs chairman suggested that the ballot committee ask the association board next Monday night for any necessary funds in connection with the election.

DIRECTORS WHOSE terms are expiring are Veitch, Vice-President Everett Howe, Mrs. T. P. Bacon Jr., secretary; Jack Cooper and Charles Blue. Veitch will be a director-at-large next year, a position regularly assumed by the immediate past president.

Holdover directors, whose terms run for another year, are George Hauerken, Nathan Gray, Zach Montgomery and Frank Cayting.

Stanley Allen, last year's president ,is the 1953 director-at-large.

'Poll Tax' Talk Called Tribute To Association

During Monday night's Civic Affairs Committee discussion on preparations for the annual election of Orinda Association directors, the words "poll tax" suddenly popped up.

Some of the delegates mentioned that in previous elections in recent years, a number of persons had complained of having to pay a "poll tax" before being allowed to vote.

These persons had been contacted by the association in the organization's efforts to speed return of ballots and to increase association membership.

THE "POLL TAX" reference Monday night evoked some laughter.

Boone Robinson of the Sleepy Hollow Improvement Association poited out that payment of association dues as a prerequisite of eligibility to vote could not possibly be construed as "poll tax," since the election is for association directors and not for government officials.

Joseph Creighton, acting as Civic Affairs Committee chairman in the absence of Frank Hart, agreed with others at the meeting when he observed that the "poll tax" accusation was "an unwitting compliment to the Orinda Association."

"ALTHOUGH the Orinda Association is a representative organization of the various improvement clubs and other organizations in Orinda, and as such conducts its elections among its membership, it is apparent that many people regard the Orinda Association as at least a quasi-governmental body," he commented.

"That' a real tribute to the effective work which the association has done for the community.

"Orinda is an unincorporated community, and the Orinda Association is the nearest thing locally to a city council.

"But our presentations to actual governmental bodies, such as the Board of Supervisors and the County Planning Commission, are on behalf of the community and are representative of the views of the many groups in Orinda."

Creighton and the others stressed that the best way for Orindans to show their appreciation for Orinda Association efforts is to pay their dues and participate in the activities of the organization.

Bus Schedules Still Confused

School bus schedules in Orinda were not definitely clarified this week, according to anannouncement from Joseph Sheaff, superintendent of Schools.

The situation remains the same as last week with all busses running 20 minutes later than orginally scheduled and all schools opening and closing 20 minutes later than the originally announced times.

Sheaff said he expected the matter to come up for clarification at the next meeting of the board of trustees November 2 at the Orinda School at 8 p.m.

Schedules became confused in an attempt to coordinate the grammer school and high school bus schedules.

Chaddock Resigns Acalanes Trustee Position, Alice McBride Appointed

John Chaddock of Walnut Creek, who became a trustee of the Acalanes Union High School just a few months after the district was organized in 1939, served at his last meeting last week.

Alice McBride of Walnut Creek has been appointed by County School Superintendent B. O. Wilson to take Chaddock's place after consultation with other trustees.

CHADDOCK SAID that personal affairs were taking him away from the area too much of the time and that his resignation had been submitted "with great regret"

Trustee Chairman Carl Newberry said Chaddock's "constant good judgment," had been an invaluable aid to trustees in meeting school problems.

Mrs. McBride said of her appointment, "It is a great honor to be appointed in his (Chaddock's) place. It's a good size pair of shoes to fill, he did an excellent job."

THE FIRST WOMAN to serve on the district board, Mrs. McBride was also, along with Mrs. Elliott Mauzy, one of the first women to serve on the Walnut Festival Board of Directors, appointed in 1950.

A past president of the Acalanes Parents Club, Mrs. McBride was also recording recretary and served on an advisory committee that sat with the Acalanes High School principal.

Need 2 Years For Orinda Overpass Job

Bridge work and installation of drainage culverts for the Orinda Interchange are expected to be started in about two weeks, Assistant District Engineer Albert E. Simmons of the State Division of Highways told the Diablo Highway Improvement Federation Tuesday night. The entire project will be completed in about two years, he said.

Speaking at the federation's first membership meeting of the fall in the cafeteria of Acalanes High School, Simmons said the actual construction work will get under way as soon as the present burning clearing and grubbing by the contractors is completed.

The state engineer said the north lane of the overpass, along Mt. Diablo Boulevard, will be the first phase of major construction.

The Shell service station, the bus-waiting shelter and the Cross Roads restaurant are scheduled to be removed from the north side of the highway by November 1.

Lanes to the east of the present Crossroads intersection will be constructed before those west of the Crossroads are built, Simmons said.

This phase is expected to take about a year, after which lanes on the south side of the highway will be started.

DURING CONSTRUCTION a 25-miles-per-hour speed limit will be in effect at the Crossroads area. Traffic signals will be maintained as long as possible, Simmons stated.

He explained that the 1.2-mile, six-lane Freeway project will have a center strip 42 feet wide, which it is planned to narrow at some future time to 12 feet, for eventual widening of the overpass to eight lanes.

A four-lane north-south underpass, about 400 feet west of the present Crossroads, will be a vital part of the project, as will cloverleaf approaches northeast and southwest of the point where the underpass goes under the overpass.

Simmons said that total cost of the job is estimated at $2,500,000 — $1,800,000 for construction, $450,000 for rights of way purchases and $150,000 for moving of utilities.

Del Armstrong asked what provision is being made for Greyhound bus runs and stops.

SIMMONS replied that the Highways Division has nothing to do with that, and suggested that the California Public Utilities Commission be asked about that problem.

He explained that no bus stops are allowed on the Freeway route.

Federation Chairman Elliot J. Hartman stated that the State Highway Commission is not expected to announce its 1954-55 budget until its November or December meeting in Sacramento.

"I DONT KNOW if funds for Lafayette By-Pass and other phases of the Diablo Freeway will be forthcoming this time," he said, "but I feel there is a possibility they may be budgeted a year from now, for the 1955-56 fiscal year.

"The time-table for the extension of the Diablo Freeway, with Lafayette By-Pass as the next step, has probably been brought twice as near by the increase in gas tax and motor vehicle funds."

VICTOR SAUER, county road commissioner, will speak at the federation's November meeting on the county road bond program, Hartman announced. This meeting is tentatively scheduled for November 24.

At that meeting a new board of 11 directors, including a chairman, vice-chairman and secretary-treasurer, will be elected for a one-year term.

Hartman appointed W. A. Racine of Lafayette, Fred Peglow of Lafayette, G. K. Butler of Pleasant Hill and Charles Johnson of Danville as a nominatnig committee, with Racine as chairman, to suggest a slate of candidates at the November meeting.

Ramsay Underwood was also suggested for the nominating committee, and Racine was authorezed to add him to the committee if Underwood consents.

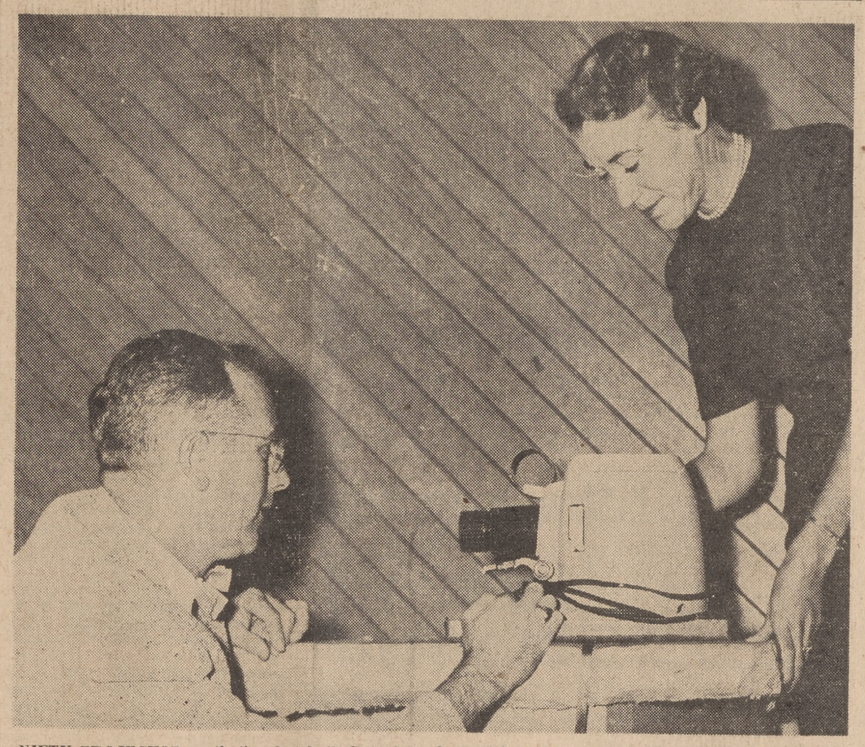

In addition to explaining the Orinda Interchange schedule, Simmons showed colored slides of an ancient Roman highway, the German Autobahn, freeway construction in the vicinity of Paris by slave labor of the Nazis during World War II and the famous Pennsylvania Turnpike.

Nursery School To Be Closed Monday

The Orinda Nursery School, along with other Orinda schools, will be closed Monday, on Teachers' Institute Day.

Nursery school director, Mrs. William A. Patterson ,and teachers Mrs. R. H. Laney and Mrs. Henry E. Harris will observe the day by visiting other nursery schools in the Bay Area.

Any mother of nursery school pupils who desires to accompany the teachers on the observation tour may do so, Mrs. Patterson said.

SUN Subs Net $82.50 to Mothers Club For New Film Projector for Schools

Each of Orinda's four grammar schools, including the new Del Rey School to be opened next month, will have its own still-film projector after a fourth projector is purchased in the near future with money from a recent subscription drive for The Orinda SUN.

A check for $82.50, representing the net proceeds from new subscriptions obtained in a campaign conducted over a period of several months, was turned over to the Orinda Mothers Club Tuesday night by Herman Silverman, editor and publisher of The SUN.

PRESENTATION was made to Mrs. Marvin T. Bonds, last year's president of the Mothers Club, at the club's "Father's Night" and first general meeting of the present school year, in Orinda School auditorium.

The annual subscription drive was conducted by the club during Mrs. Bonds' term as president.

Mrs. Bonds announced that the club will buy another still-film projector for the local school system with the funds.

LAST YEAR, new-sub proceeds from the drive conducted by the Mothers Club were used to purchase playground equipment for the schools.

Two years ago, drive money resulted in a projector. Up until then the schools had had only one projector.

Another has since been purchased by the school board, so that the new one will be the fourth, and there will be one for each school, Superintendent Joseph L. Sheaff explained.

ON BEHALF of the club, Mrs. Bonds thanked Silverman and The SUN for offering the organization the opportunity to obtain money with which to aid the schools.

Silverman expressed appreciation of cooperation by the Mothers Club with The SUN. After pointing out that the club is paid by the paper for personal and social news items turned in by its publicity chairman, he said:

"Of all the organizations we deal with, we have the best working relationships with the Orinda Mothers Club, and also the most cooperation."

Grass Fire Burns About 800 Acres

One of the largest grass fires the Orinda Fire Department has been called on to fight occurred Wednesday when a Pacific Gas and Electric line started a blaze that burned off between 800 and 1000 acres of Tilden Park grass.

The fire was started when the recent heavy winds blew the line down, according to Assistant Fire Chief A. P. Winsor.

FIRE DEPARTMENTS were called from Oakland, Berkeley, Kensington, and the Regional Park, as well as Orinda, to combat the blaze.

The burned area is just south of Inspiration Point.

Winsor said there was no real damage except to grass, shrubs and trees.

The smoke was not blown over Orinda because, for a change, the winds were in the other direction.

OTHER FIRES reported by Winsor were:

Yesterday, 47 Orchard road, grass fire, no damage

Wednesday night, grass fire behind Orinda Theater, small, no damage.

Monday, grass fire on La Cuesta, started by muffler on an automobile. Burned about five acres, but no damage.

Winsor commented that the heavy winds have not helped the fire hazard any. He reported that the department has been keeping a close watch on the burning along Mt. Diablo Boulevard and that they have had very little trouble with it.

Pine Grove May Get Hearing on Night of Nov. 17

Public hearing on the controversial Pine Grove rezoning application of East Bay Muncipal Utility District is tentatively scheduled by the County Planning Commission for November 17, 8 p.m., it was announced yesterday by Assistant Planning Technician H. Russell Griffith.

"Whether the hearing will be held that night depends on the commission schedule," Griffith said.

"It is expected that the basic information on Orinda being compiled by the commission's technical staff will be complete enough by then to warrant the holding of a hearing."

GATHERING OF information on population trends, business facilities and other key factors in Orinda is under supervision of Associate County Planners Richard Stockwell and Mazy Wampole. Stockwell heads the master plan section. Miss Wampole is in charge of the current projects section.

Controversy over future use of the Pine Grove area, at the northeast corner of Orinda Crosroads, has been flaring frequently over the past few years.

Last June EBMUD filed application with the Planning Commission for rezoning to Retail Business of some 38 acres of Pine Grove land and of approximately 12 acres on the west side of Orinda Highway, between the Crossroads and the Village.

A CONFERENCE of the Orinda Association's Orinda Planning Committee, County Planning Consultant Charles Hayes Diggs and the Planning Commission's technical staff resulted in the promise by Diggs that a public hearing would not be recommended until completion of thorough study of over-all Orinda community problems.

At a later conference, the Orinda Planning Committee turned over to Stockwell facts and figures on population and business facilities, gathered by the Orinda Chamber of Commerce.

Both the Orinda Association and the Orinda Chamber of Commerce are on record against rezoning of the Pine Grove to Retail Business until definite need for such business development is shown.

Monday Holiday For Children

Monday will be a holiday for the school children of Orinda, but not for the teachers.

Teacher's Institute will be held, during which time all instructors will visit other school districts not holding institute and sit in on classes of interest to them.

But it will be a complete holiday for the children — no school, no busses.

Opening of Del Rey School Due Nov. 9

The new Del Rey School is expected to open about November 9, Superintendent of Schools Joseph L. Sheaff told the Orinda Mothers Club Tuesday night.

Addressing a capacity crowd of parents and Orinda school system faculty members at the club's "Father's Night," at Orinda School auditorium, Sheaff described the Del Rey School as the most impressive in the district, from an architectural and functional viewpoint.

He added that the new kindergarten through sixth grade school, to consist of eight classrooms, an administration unit, a teachers' room and a nurse's room, is outstanding in the Bay Area.

THE SUPERINTENDENT also informed the club's first general meeting of the 1953-54 school year that a 13-acre site at the Pine Grove is under consideration for a seventh and eighth grade school.

This building, he said, would consist of 13 classrooms, an auditorium, a shop room, an art room, a library and a domestic science room.

Also under study, he reported, are plans for 16 more classrooms and another kindergarten room for the Sleepy Hollow School, 16 additional classrooms for the Del Rey School and an all-purpose room for the Glorietta School.

These additional facilities would make room for 4400 elementary school students in Orinda, Sheaff predicted.

SMILINGLY, the superintendent recalled that just a few years ago, at a Mothers Club meeting similar to the "Father's Night" and attended by only 50 family members, the main point of his talk was the question of whether the Orinda School warranted eight more classrooms.

Since then, there has been a 15 per cent increase in attendance at the local schools each year, he said.

The meeting was opened by Mrs. Miles B. Sutliffe, club president, who welcomed those present and reviewed the organization's accomplishments and its plans for the future.

SHE THEN TURNED the chairmanship of the gathering over to Mrs. Coleman Huntley, vice-president and program chairman, who introduced Sheaff.

The superintendent expressed appreciation of the Mothers Club cooperation with the nurse and the school district in the health program, wherein all students are weighed and measured, and in which eye and ear tests are given.

He described county services available to the school district, such as guidance personnel, interest tests and visual aids.

Primary grades instruction, he explained, emphasizes reading. Youngsters in these grades through the third — are also introduced to numbers and writing, how to get along with people and respect for authority and are given some music and art work.

THE INTERMEDIATE program, from the fourth grade to the sixth, includes reading, writing and arithmetic, with the sixth grade doing some review of what it had before, to get the children ready for the seventh and eighth grades, where they get a wider scope of learning.

The superintendent stated that the teachers have done a wonderful job in getting the children ready for high school — that the children go-

Illegal Pin-Ball Out in Orinda, Other Action Due

Illegal multiple play pin ball machines were removed from Orinda after being reported to the Sheriff's Department last week.

Inspector Ray Stoffels said yesterday that action may be taken against pin ball machines in "Alamo and Pleasant Hill tonight. (last night)."

Though the illegal machines were reported last week, he said the department had been too busy attending to other matters in other parts of the county to attend to the machines.

Stoffels said "there are other matters to be taken care of tonight, but we'll get to the machines if we can."

C of C Continues Searching For Parking Areas

In its continuing search for greater parking facilities the Orinda Chamber of Commerce Tuesday appointed R. E. Wadsworth to investigate the property on the corner of Brookwood Road and Moraga Highway across from the American Trust Company.

Wadsworth and Ramsay Underwood were the committee which arranged for the lease of Pacific Gas and Electric land for the present parking lots.

ACCORDING TO Bob Gemetti Jr., publicity chairman for the chamber, the group is trying to find adequate facilities for commuters, employees of the business area and shoppers.

John Loop was appointed to work with Wadsworth and Underwood to get information on the surfacing of the present PG&E lands in accordance with the recent agreement.

THE CHAMBER also received a check for $585 from the state for the sale of the bus shelter, which will be moved to make way for the Orinda Overpass.

The check was earmarked for a future bus shelter to be placed in an appropriate locatic n.

Next meeting of the chamber will be at the Casa Orinda November 3.

Parker, Robinson, Agree on Need to Spur Master Plan

Tonight's public hearing by the County Planning Commission on the proposal to establish a Board of Zoning Adjustments is a major step toward long-needed streamlining of the commission apparatus and toward speeding development of a county master plan, it was agreed this week by leaders of the Contra Costa Real Estate Board and the Planning League of Contra Costa County.

This view was expressed Monday night by King Parker Jr., executive vice-president of the Real Estate Board, and Boone Robinson, president of the Planning League.

Parker was guest speaker at the monthly meeting of the Orinda Association's Civic Affairs Committee in the Orinda School library. His general topic was the functions and attitudes of the Real Estate Board.

Robinson, present as the representative of the Sleepy Hollow Improvement Association on the Civic Affairs Committee, participated in the discussion set off by Parker's report.

TONIGHT'S Planning Commission hearing will be held at 7:30 in Room 210 of the Hall of Records in Martinez. Under the proposal to be considered, all land use and minor zoning variations would be heard by an Adjustment Board.

This would allow the commission more time for actual planning and for speeding the development of the master plan, according to Planning Commissioner Arthur Young.

"THERE'S A LOT of room for improvement in the present Planning Commission," Parker declared. "The commission should be and could be doing a lot more in the field of constructive planning.

"I feel that the Planning Commission is spending too much time on minor details, instead of devoting itself to the major work of developing the master plan.

"The first step toward correcting this situation is the proposal to establish a Board of Adjustments, on which a public hearing will be held this Friday night.

"I BELIEVE a Board of Adjustments should be representative of various groups, including the Planning League.

"Furthermore, I believe that one of the best ideas would be for a citizens' advisory committee to the Planning Commission to be formed, along the lines of the Citizens' Advisory Committee to the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District.

"Such an advisory committee could sit in on deliberations of the Planning Commission and could contribute valuable advice and constructive criticism.

"In establishment of an advisory committee, the Board of Supervisors could ask eight or 10 groups to name representatives."

ROBINSON RECALLED that the Contra Costa Taxpayers Association recently recommended to the Board of Supervisors that a Board of Adjustments be established and that the county hire as director of planning the best man it could find in the entire United States for the job.

"The Board of Supervisors turned these recommendations over to the Planning Commission," Robinson said. "This Friday night the commission will hold a hearing on the Board of Adjustments proposal.

"THE PLANNING LEAGUE will submit its recommendation regarding the Board of Adjustments.

"We will also make a recommendation regarding the director of planning.

"Also, the Planning League feels that the Zoning Ordinance must be revised.

"Through the present system of land use permits it is actually possible, in effect, to rezone an area.

"The Board of Supervisors should see to it that the land use applications that go to a Board of Adjustments should not involve what amounts to rezoning, but that the application should be only on such minor matters as side yards and setbacks.

"IN ALMOST every other county in the state the planning commission is a highly respected body. Unfortunately, our County Planning Commission is so bogged down in these day-to-day requests that it has no time for over-all planning.

Robinson's remarks on the Adjustment Board proposal were made at request of Joseph Creighton, acting chairman of the Civic Affairs Committee and temporary chairman of that group's Orinda Planning Committee, of which Robinson is a member.

Parker said that the Real Estate Board includes 82 brokers in the Central Contra Costa area and that approximately 170 salesmen work for those brokers.

"The Contra Costa Real Estate Board has jurisdiction from Orinda to Clayton and from Pleasant Hill to San Ramon," he continued.

"WE HAVE TRIED to get group opinion along constructive lines. We have attempted to keep the real estate profession on a high, ethical plane; that we are succeeding is demonstrated by the decreasing number of complaints received."

The realtor official said that "a small minority" of real estate people "wants the county to stay as it is" and that "another small minority, for its own selfish benefit, wants the entire county cut into quarter-acres," but he added:

"The majority of our people and our directors is eager to see what comes of the County Planning Commission's program for development of a master plan.

"WHEN WE SEE the suggestions that will be brought forth, we'll come up with suggestions of our own."

"Sound, over-all planning would be in the real estate men's self-interest," he said.

This view was agreed to by Parker.

Park Council Membership Drive Begun

Road Tax Rate Cut 50 Per Cent

County Road tax rate has been cut almost 50 per cent, directors of the Contra Costa Taxpayers' Association heard last Friday.

Reorganization of the department by County Road Commissioner Victor Sauer into planning, construction, staff, property and other divisions has led to a drop in maintenance costs from $1462 to $1400 per mile the association heard.

Sauer expects costs to drop to $500 per mile in the next five years, he said.

He said he had eliminated extra work which benefits only individual property owners along county roads.

Realtors Hear of Sanitary District

John Nejedly, attorney for the district, outlined present problems and proposed expansion of the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District to the Contra Costa Real Estate Board Monday.

Guest speaker at the board breakfast meeting, Nejedly explained in detail various proposals submitted to people of the Alamo-Danville area.

"UNDER THE PRESENT set-up, the people of the Southern Public Utility District are now paying taxes for the maintenance of their sewer system which are equivalent to more than twice the present county rate," Nejedly said.

He stressed the advantages of incorporating large areas under one sanitary district and said that if the entire Central Contra Costa area were developed under one system, rather than two or more separate systems with their own treatment plant, the initial saving in construction would amount to over two million dollars.

The board members learned of the various ways in which they could be of service to the district and can pass on substantial savings to their clients by being informed of all the district developments in regard to expansion and annexation.

IN NEJEDLY'S opinion, the management of the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District is now as efficient as that of any district of its size in Northern California operating under similar circumstances.

He also believes that sewer systems should be provided to all future subdivisions regardless of the size of the lots and that we must adhere as closely as possible to the recommendations of the County Health Department.

"Septic tanks are rapidly becoming a thing of the past," Nejedly said.

Next Monday morning members of the Realtors Mart will discuss the recently adopted County Subdivision Ordnance. The discussion will be led by A. J. "Buck" Johnson, Chairman of the Board's County Affairs Committee.

Law Prohibiting Pin-Ball Play by Minors Rejected

County supervisors this week turned down a proposed ordinance prohibiting minors from playing pin-balls.

Rejection of the proposed law followed a motion by Supervisor W. G. Buchanan of Pittsburg, who said he saw no reason to pass another law which couldn't be adequately enforced.

THE ORDINANCE was originally proposed by Judge Donald F. Creedon of the Pinole-Hercules-Rodeo Judicial District.

Creedon urged adoption of the pin-ball ordinance to prevent youngsters from squandering money in the devices when they didn't realize the significance of their actions.

Sheriff James N. Long told supervisors that the ordinance would be difficult to enforce, but added that enforcement would not require additional men.

AFTER QUESTIONING Long, Goyak said that policing would normally be done by those establishments operating pin-ball machines, and, for this reason ,additional deputies would apparently not be required.

In explaining his reasons for proposing the law, Creedon had cited an example of a boy who was sent to the store to buy groceries but spent all his money playing pin-ball machines.

Buchanan referred to this example and called it as weak an argument as any he had heard. "What that youngster needed was a good tanning," he said.

BUCHANAN WENT ON to say that it is up to parents to take steps to keep their children from playing pin-ball machines if they object to such action. He said he had heard no favorable reactions to the ordinance in his district.

Taylor and Cummings also said they had heard no opinion favoring the proposed law in their respective districts.

Frederickson said that he comes from a community where such a law has been in effect many years and that it is a good ordinance.

Goyak said that his district had expressed approval of the proposed ordinance.

Long's Car Rental Set-up Questioned

Questioning of the present system whereby Sheriff James Long rents cars to his own department was contained in a resolution passed by Contra Costa Pomona Grange, meeting in Danville last week.

The resolution asked that the County Board of Supervisors study advisability of furnishing county-owned cars to all departments, with special emphasis on the sheriff's department.

Long has operated renting cars to his department for a number of years.

Complaint was made this summer by the County Grand Jury that as privately-owned cars, cheriff's cars were prohibited from having red lights and sirens by state law, hampering officers in line of duty.

The Grange resolution points out that the state furnishes cars for its departments and "evidently finds this policy to be the most satisfactory from an economic standpoint."

First Community Concert Pleases Packed House

Nan Merriman, glamorous American mezzo-soprano, star of concert, radio and the recording field, brilliantly opened the year's concert season for the Acalanes Community Concert Association with her recital at Acalanes High School auditorium October 15.

Miss Merriman sang to a capacity house of over 1200 enthusiastic and appreciative concert goers.

Her program contained something special for every listener from the classics of Haydn and Beethoven, to a group of gay and melodic Irish country songs.

SHE WAS VERY generous with encores, and pleased and charmed her audience with her beautiful tones, her handsome appearance and her gracious manner.

As one of the local music critics said "She has a voice of wide range and volume clear and firm in the upper registers and warm and flexible throughout. She has also an exceptional stage presence, being quite a feast for the eyes."

MISS MERRIMAN proceeds from here to Seattle where her next concert will be to an audience of over 4000, the largest community concert association in America.

She has just returned from a European tour which brought her fabulous success. She will be heard on the radio Thanksgiving Day with the Chicago Symphony Orchestra.

Meeting to Discuss County Boy's Camp

What is a rehabilitation camp for boys and why is such a camp needed in Contra Costa County are some of the questions which will be answered at a public meeting called by the Boys' Camp Committee for November 3 at 8 p.m. at Concord Elementary School.

Al Collins, superintendent of the Alameda County Boys' Camp, will address the meeting, according to Mrs H. F. Neller of Lafayette, camp committee chairman.

COLLINS WILL be introduced by Superior Judge Wakefield Taylor, judge of the Contra Costa County Juvenile Court, who will also discuss the need for a camp in this county.

Organizations throughout Contra Costa will receive letters of invitations to attend the meeting and to add their endorsement of a boys' camp to the list of nearly 150 endorsements already obtained.

The list of supporters includes P.T.A.'s, women's clubs, churches, improvement associations and Chambers of Commerce, civic, fraternal and veterans' groups and service clubs.

ENDORSEMENTS are forwarded to the Board of Supervisors, to whom the Boys' Camp Committee submitted the camp proposal last June.

Mrs. Neller stated that the meeting has been arranged in response to requests from organizations that additional information be provided through speakers and other means.

Mrs. Peter Andichou of Clayton, who has been active on behalf of the state school, Los Guilucos School for Girls, is secretary of the Boys' Camp Committee, and Mrs. Anne Glass of Walnut Creek is publicity chairman. Among others serving on the committee are: Mrs. B A. Hanson Jr., Lafayette, and Harlan Lewis, county school guidance supervisor and superintendent of Juvenile Hall School.

Condon Talks on Congress Session

He analyzed issues faced and actions taken by the recent Congress, particularly as to the tidelands oil question, conservation of publicly owned natural resources and the consequences of drastic economy measures.

CONDON SAID he was one of two California congressmen to vote against the transfer of tideland oil lands to state control. He said his action resulted from placing national above local interest and historical precedent above opportunism.

He expressed concern at the growing threats to nationally owned natural resources, especially as to public grazing lands and public water and power projects. He noted the recent shelving of a large multiple-purpose project at Hell's Canon, Idaho, in favor of a smaller single-purpose private company and the drastic slash of Bureau of Reclamation activities in the West.

CURRENT ECONOMY drives have also curtailed other vital governmental activities, such as medical research in the field of cancer, he stated.

Condon gave a detailed review of what he described as "smear charges" against him and stated his determination to seek reelection.

The discussion was followed by refreshments.

The Orinda Democrats will meet again on Wednesday, November 4, at the Orinda Community Church

Masonic Hall Request Still Being Studied

Still under consideration this week by the County Planning Commission was the application of the Orinda Masonic Building Association for a permit to build a Masonic Hall next to the new St. Stephen's Episcopal Church.

No decision has yet been reached, according to Assistant County Planning Technician H. Russell Griffith, who reported that all the commissioners visited the site October 9.

With the commissioners on the field trip that day were Griffith and Associate County Planner George Brenner.

BRENNER SAID yesterday that the commission is still concerned over the traffic problem in connection with the proposed structure.

Possible intensification of "the existing critical traffic problem which prevail on that portion of Charles Hill Road below its intersection with Honey Hill Road" was one of the points of objection raised by Frank van Gilluwe, president of the Monte Vista Improvement Association, at the Planning Commission hearing on the Masonic request September 22.

This argument was conutered by George N. Jensen, president of the Orinda Masonic Building Association, and Attorney Vernon Patterson, junior warden of Orinda Masonic Lodge 704.

They declared that there would be adequate off-street parking space.

THE APPLICATION, requesting an okay for construction of a Masonic Hall with off-street parking, was filed by R. E. Wadsworth, secretary of the Masonic building association, who is a member of the building and land committee of Lodge 704.

According to Jensen, the plans call for a one-story, rustic-exterior structure containing 4000 square feet of floor space and set back 100 to 150 feet from Honey Hill Road.

Below the lowest portion of the building there would be off-street parking space. Screening, a patio in back and landscaping are also planned.

At the commission hearing, Van Gilluwe presented a protest petition signed by 32 property owners.

Don Babes Smash Bullpups, 35-12

The Acalanes Junior Varsity racked up two touchdowns and a safety in the opening quarter of yesterday's game with the Alhambra Bullpups, to take a 16-0 first quarter lead ,and from there on in they coasted to a lopsided 35-12 win.

Alhambra's touchdowns came only after Don Coaches Bob Stevens and Jean Ridley had mercifully inserted reserves into the game.

In the game, played at Alhambra High ,the Dons' domination was pretty well told in the opening minutes of play.

RED JONES started things off in the right direction for the Dons when he faded back on the opening play and tossed a pass to Jerry Coakley ,elongated right end.

Coakley raced into the end zone, with the total play covering 50 yards.

Jones kicked the conversion and it was 7-0.

Alhambra failed to gain after the kickoff, and Jones repeated the aerial scoring act the first time the Dons got their hands on the ball.

He did change the script, however, as he passed to End Mike Roberts instead of to Coakley. The play consumed but 20 yards.

On the conversion try the pass from center was wide, but the point was counted when Mike Barrett gathered the ball up and raced around end into the end zone, to make it 14-0.

ONCE AGAIN Alhambra was held for no gain after the kickoff, and on third down the ball carrier was trapped behind the goal line for a safety, making it 16-0.

Alhambra kicked from the 20 as a result of the safety, and on the first play Sonny Falk, frosh full back, raced around left end and went 40 yards to score.

Jones missed on the conversion try, making it 22-0, and it went to 29-0 when Dennis Combs tossed a pass to Harold Eklund good for 20 yards. That brought the ball to the 2-yard mark ,from where Eklund scored on the next play, and Jones once again split the uprights.

In the second quarter, Halfback Mike Henderson tore off the final 12 yards of a 40-yard march, to score, bringing the count to 35-0.

ALHAMBRA'S battered troops got a lift at this point, when the Dons' quarterback, Dennis Combs, tossed a pass into the waiting arms of an Alhambra back who raced with it 40 yards, to score, and the half ended with Acalanes out in front ,35-6.

Alhambra was stopped cold in an attempted center buck for the extra point.

In the second half the only scoring came when an Alhambra pass and run went 70 yards to tally, while the Dons' only real threat came when they drove to the one-yard line before losing the ball on downs.

Alhambra had failed on its second conversion try, and the game wound up 35-12 in the Dons' favor.

John Bohn was a standout for the reserves of the Acalanes eleven as he intercepted three passes and did some good ball-toting on his own.

Tanagers to Meet Wednesday Evening

The Orinda Tanager Unit of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center will hold its regular meeting Wednesday, 8 p.m., at the home fo Mrs. George R. Merriam, 51 Claremont Avenue.

Co-hostesses with Mrs. Meriram will be Mesdames Harl Tyler and Nels Hamberg.

Lions Announce No Hallowe'en Party for Kids

The Lions Club will not be able to sponsor the annual children's Halloween party at the Orinda Theater this year as they have in the past, according to George Bauslaugh, publicity chairman.

"Because of the installation of 3-D sound and screen at the theater," he said, "the club can't do anything at this time."

There is a fund set aside for this purpose and this year the money will be donated to the Orinda Mothers Club for use in the library fund.

Plans were also announced for the joint meeting to be held Wednesday night at the Orinda Roost with the Rotary Club.

Bauslaugh said that usually the Lions have a costume contest on the stage and some games, but the fact that the stage area is being cut down considerably makes the program almost impossible.

"Last year there were about 500 kids there," he said, "and it was quite some show, but we just can't handle it this year."

Hauerken Boosts GOP Fund Event

Orinda area members of the Republican Party, realizing that now is the time to make sure that GOPers will be elected to public office in next year's elections, are eagerly supporting the fund-raising dinner which will be held at Diablo Country Club on the evening of November 10 and which will feature Mrs. Ivy Baker Priest, Treasurer of the United States, as one of the evening's principal speakers.

George Haurken, who with William Fleager in Orinda, and Mrs. Marian Devin, of Moraga, is handling ticket sales for the dinner stated, "Frankly, the demand for tickets in this area is astounding.

"It certainly points out the fact that the Republicans in this area realize the importance of electing loyal Americans to public office in next year's balloting. We here in the Sixth Congressional District know especially that we can elect a Reublican if we get moving now and this fund-raising dinner certainly gives us a chance."

Hauerken, Fleager and Mrs. Devin urge all those who wish to attend the dinner to purchase tickets from them promptly as the number of seats available is strictly limited.

Enforce Stricter Kids Curfew

A mounting wave of juvenile vandalism is resulting in stricter enforcement of the juvenile curfew law by the County Sheriff's Department.

In a statement issued Monday, Lieutenant Harry A. Brown of the patrol division said the ordinance will be enforced as one means of combatting vandalism and malicious mischief.

It is unlawful for anyone under 18 to be out after 9 p. m., unless accompanied by parent or guardian.

Youths violating the law will be taken to the County Jail in Martinez and held until their parents pick them up, authorities said.

Brown said the department will put on extra patrol cars Hallowe'en night.

Sheriff's deputies are now investigating a case of reported vandalism to the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Rowley of 115 Via Del Sol in Walnut Cdeek.

V. A. McCall, Walnut Creek realtor, reported juveniles wrote and drew pictures on the walls with blue crayons, causing an estimated $75 damage.

McCall is watching the home for Mrs. Rowley, now in Honolulu.

Park Pool's Bob Edwards Off To Europe

By GAY MILLER

Hats off to Robert 'Bob' Edwards, the young swimming coach for the past three years of the Orinda Park Pool who, by the time you read this, will be on his way to a glorious trip through Europe.

Bob is a determined fellow who works hard for what he wants and apparently gets from life. This was obvious to the parents of any children who worked so hard with him for the swim team. His accomplishments with these youngsters were amazing.

THE STRENUOUS training proved to be fun and excitement the way Bob coached and encouraged them. Records weer broken at the pool as well as in the swim meets away from home. Competition was keen, good sportsmanship was evident and if any of them flirts with fame in the future, they can look back to their coach who gave them what they needed in the very beginning when confidence really counts.

Bob's European tour is no spur of the moment thing. It began brewing long ago in school when he and his two traveling companions Bill Duncan from U.S.C. and Al Gaber of U.C.L.A. all discussed this very trip and decided that some day they would take off together an see the world.

So now they are driving to the East coast where they will work as seamen aboard a foreign ship which will take them to London.

THEY PLAN TO SEE the British Isles, France, Germany and the African Continent, working at jobs all the way. It will be interesting to hear the stories he will have to relate upon his return to the States in May.

He will stop off at Flint, Mich., to pick up a new car and head for home in time for the pool opening next year.

IN THE NAVY he put in a stretch aboard a Yard Mine Sweeper and LSTs. He did some boxing during that time and also later at U.C.L.A. where he majored in physical education and where he will finish his Masters degree and administrative credentials.

Of the youngsters at the pool, Bob has nothing but praise. He says they are terrific. He fully realized the strain on them all the time and the cooperation of their parents goes without saying.

Bob says thanks to all concerned. We say thanks to him and his efforts. Have fun on this well deserved trip Bob. Bon Voyage.

About our happy Country Folks

By EDITH BOLMAN

MR. AND MRS. NORRIS WIGGINS entertained semi-formally with cocktails for Mr. and Mrs. John Parker who have returned to Orinda after a brief sojourn in Florida. The party was also given in honor of the Parker's guest "a gentleman from the South."

From the South indeed—considerably Souther than you might think—this gent was from South America and he turned out to be quite a boy at the party. Due to certain gregarious inclinations he took little nips from the other guests' cocktails in spite of the fact that he is supposed to adhere strictly to a beer diet.

Charming person, but those manners!

The reason for that is that the cocktails go to his head and, because of certain natural proclivities, the whole deal is impractical. Actually he becomes SO natural that the other guests see to it that he is cornered until such time as he regains his decorum. The Parkers, being well aware of this gentleman's peculiarities brought along a cage so that Mr. Groucho from South America, a ring-tailed monkey (quite rare and expensive) could be periodically parked.

However, generally speaking, he was a most piquant and exotic addition to the party and the chit-chat hereabouts is more or less to the effect that "now we have seen everything."

As far as we personally are concerned we have ARRIVED. There was a press conference recently and instead of being asked to please, for Heaven's sake, stay away we were actually invited to attend.

We had a preconceived notion about smoke filled rooms with reporters asking the victim questions with a double meaning and smoking cigarettes in long holders. Then, we thought, you were supposed to write notes like mad being careful not to, at the same time, get smoke in your eyes or swallow the cigarette holder. Actually that is not the situation at all. The reporters asked a flock of intelligent questions which were completely over our head and the interviewee fired back logical answers and not a soul for blocks around swallowed a cigarette holder. All of which reminds us—Mrs. E. R. Holabird is now the Society Editor of the San Francisco News, so if you want to read the dope about the big city look for "Peggy Holabird's" column.

Here's a problem to iron out

Another funny story on that Smith, Jensen Hauerkan hunting trip we told you about before. When Mrs. Smith was stalking her antelope she missed a couple of shots—finally connected—got her antelope—then remarked "that would have been a better 3 iron shot."

GOODNESS GRACIOUS—another repercussion from last week's column. The comments about the Junior G men and the intrepid Mother who tracked down, with the aid of the police, a truck which had been illegally dumping on private property, precipitated phone calls from other harried property owners who have been the unwilling hosts for dump trucks and wanted to know what to do about it.

After all we live in a beautiful area of which we are proud indeed. We want to keep it that way so here is a suggestion. Advise your children to be on the lookout, and if they do see anything untoward going on, get the facts, license number, type of car, location and then tell a grown up who can call the police department.

They are completely cooperative as evidenced by last week's story—they get to you in a hurry, but you have to be accurate and have the facts before they can come to your aid. Come to think of it this should go beyond the realm of dumping.

ORINDA IS AN UNINCORPORATED area and unless we are individually vigilant it will not continue to be such a desirable spot. But remember the important thing is to have adequate information before you call the police, otherwise, if they are brought in on a wild goose chase, they will lose patience and not come again.

Neighborhood party recently at the home of Mrs. Hyland Hinmann to meet Sleepy Hollow newcomers Mesdames Stone and Smith whose first names we didn't get but that won't be as much of a problem to Stone as it will be to Smith.

The Moraga Improvement Association staged its annual party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Harrer. And what a place for a party—a swimming pool in the garden which is something we are more or less accustomed to seeing—but also—an indoor plunge, a bowling alley, shuffle board Ad Infinitum.

New family in Orinda, Vida Descansada to be exact—Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Miller with three or four children dpending on whether the Orinda stork or the Orinda SUN arrives first this week.

A terse verse for a sick chick

And all for now because guess what—spots before our eyes—uncompromising, annoyed, overheated spots.

Behind the ears and over the chest
They look pretty funny even at best
Some on the chin to join the rest
We keep our distance—you know—lest
We, too, come down with what you've guessed
And so, some sympathy we'd like to wrest
As our one and only bedraggled request.

News item: Miss Sylvia Bolman has the measles.
That is all.

Planners OK Lot Division Request

Anthony J. Taranto received favorable recommendation from the County Planning Commission recently for his request for a permit to divide Lot 74 in Moraga Woodlands into two lots of more than a half-acre each.

The Board of Supervisors approved his application last Tuesday night, despite protests by residents of Moraga Woodlands Unit 2.

Opposite spokesmen were Calvin Hagstrom and Charles Biesel, who argued that the resultant parcels would not be harmonious with the area.

Hagstrom presented a protest petition signed by 75 property owners.

According to Associate County Planner George Brenner, in charge of zoning, about a dozen residents of the area appeared before the commission in opposition to the application.

They claimed that under Taranto's proposal the lot in question would be cut into parcels which would be too small, that resultant structures might not be architecturally pleasing and that Taranto planned to rent the buildings.

Taranto pointed out that each parcel would be over the half-acre requirement for a Residential-Agricultural zone.

Lot 74 fronts 210 feet on the south side of Crest iVew Drive, approximately 800 feet northwest of the intersection of Crest iView Drive and Crest View Court.

Carolyn Demeter Gives Sermon

St. Stephen's Young People's Fellowship, comprising approximately 30 members, has embarked on a busy program for the coming year which started Sunday with the "Youth Sunday" service which was conducted almost exclusively by the teen-agers themselves, for the regular members of the congregation.

Carolyn Demeter, who delivered the sermon on "Youth Sunday," touched on the various problems of the modern adolescent in his relationship with family and classmates, and emphasized the importance of the church as the source of inspiration from which the entire family program should be derived.

Reverand Hill, vicar of St. Stephen's, has long been active in youth work, serving as counselor to young people, and acting as football and basketball coach in the southwest portion of the United States.

His popularity with teen-agers stems from his appreciation of their views and his sympathy with their desires to be independent and contributing entities in a chaotic adult world.

'Backward Look' Is Sermon Topic

"A Dangerous Backward Look" will be the sermon topic at the Lafayette Covenant Church Sunday at 11 a.m.

Reverend Joel S. Peterson, pastor, commented that "The forward look is the only safe one" He will draw his material from chapter 19 of the book of Genesis, which deals with Lot.

The evening service will be at 7 p.m., when Rev. Peterson will discuss "Conditions for Revival."

The Women's Bible Class resumed its fall sessions last week at the home of Mrs. Lotter on Glenside Drive.

Any interested women are cordially invited to attend. Further information may be had by calling Lafayette 2193. Present study is based on the Gospel according to St. Mark.

Mormons to Hear Nico Snel Speak

Nico D. Snel, accomplished musician and composer, will be guest speaker at the Orinda Branch of Mormon Church Sunday at 1 p.m. in the facilities of the Orinda Community Church.

Mr. Snel, who is in charge of music in Mormon congregations throughout the Bay Area, will speak on the enjoyment and importance of church music.

The adult group, under the leadership of Thomas Stuart Ferguson, Branch President, will continue in its study of the Book of Mormon. The program will be in charge of Mylan Healy.

The public is cordially invited to attend.

Around the Village

as we all know is not the master of the house, but the tree, bush or stump.

However I have a dog that just loves Presto logs. Each year when the trucks roll in my winter stock of Presto logs for the store, I make sure the corner of the garage at home is well stocked, too. Zeke, the Heinz dog of mine, soon sets to work hauling his bedding out of the dog house and up on top of the Presto log pile. He works for hours pulling and tugging his bedding into a comfortable position. This, of course, goes on all winter as we gradually use up the supply. When the bedding gets down to concrete in the spring, out it goes to the dog house again, with the last one or two Presto logs tucked away in the corners for atmosphere.

Don Bye Today . . Foe Next Week: Indians

Dons Revamp Squad, Prepare For John Swett

The Acalanes Varsity draws a bye today but it has been busy all week revamping its faces after being upset by the Albany Cougars last week.

The Dons' next opponent will be the John Swett Indians, whom they meet in a 3:15 p.m. game next Friday at the Crockett gridiron.

The Dons dropped to the No. 2 spot in league standings with the loss to Albany. They must stay in the win column from here on out if they are to entertain any championship hopes.

ON SUCCESSIVE Fridays they meet John Swett, Antioch and Diablo, in that order, so they really have their work cut out for them.

In each instance they will be outweighed, and all opponents are formidable.

The Swett eleven is second only to Antioch's gridders from the point of view of weight in the league.

CROCKETT UPSET Antioch 25-22, only to drop a 25-0 decision to Diablo's high-riding Red Devils.

The Dons' ground game has been erratic, and although their aerial game had hit an all-time high against Alhambra it was practically non-existent in the Albany game.

Coaching drills have been pointed to get the aerial game going in event the runnng game has difficulty with the heavy Crockett line.

IN THE JUNIOR Varsity circuit the local elevens had a big week when the Dons rapped Albany 31-6. Las Lomas swamped Alhambra 40-0 and Pleasant Hill staged a terrific comeback to upset Pitt's Pirates 13-7.

Next Thursday Pleasant Hill and Las Lomas meet at 3:30 p.m. at Acalanes Field. Reason for the location is the greater seating capacity at the Don field.

On the same day and at the same time the Acalanes Junior Varsity opposes Pittsburg at Pittsburg.

BOTH GAMES appear to be toss-ups..

Las Lomas and Pleasant Hill meet in a natural, with both in a tie for the No. 2 spot, each having dropped one game.

THE DON BABES lead the league, as they are in the undefeated class, but will have their hands full with Pittsburg, Diablo and Pleasant Hill, their next three foes in that order.

At this stage of the race the Dons hold an edge but it's still anybody's pennant, as the competition is the closest it has been in years.

Here Are the Don Stalwarts...

Vikes, Hartnell Seek Top Grid Spot Tomorrow

Northern California's No. 1 attraction in junior college grid ranks will be featured at Pittsburg tomorrow night when East Contra Costa and Hartnell collide at 8 o'clock.

The Vikings will be seeking their sixth straight win of the season.

On the strength of two long runs of 60 and 72 yards by the brilliant L. C. (Jet) Joyner, the Vikes blanked Napa J. C. 12-0 last Friday night at Napa.

Major stakes will be on the table tomorrow night. Both East Contra Costa and Hartnell will be protecting unbeaten records and will be seeking the Coast Conference leadership and, most of all, the break that would project them more prominently in the Junior Rose Bowl picture.

In Hartnell, the Vikings of Coach Hal Burra will be meeting the National junior College co-champions. Hartnell tied Bacone (Okla) J. C. 20-20 in the Junior Rose Bowl at Pasadena last year.

Prep, College Gridiron Upsets Prove Key Role of Team Spirit, Will to Win

By ERWIN MATTSON

IF EVER TEAM SPIRIT and will to win were demonstrated, it was last weekend, when upsets were the order of the day ranging from the preps to the college elevens.

The Dons, riding high, wide and handsome after two impressive league wins, forgot that you have to block and tackle to win ball games and took a tumble down the ladder when they dropped a 20-12 decision to Albany's Cougars.

The Cougars finally tasted the sweetness of victory after having nothing but dregs of defeat in their first two league games.

The Dons found defeat anything but pleasant, and they will have the bitter taste for at least another week, as they draw a bye this weekend before tangling with the John Swett Indians next Friday afternoon at Crockett.

IN THE OTHER CONTRA Costa League games, Diablo smacked John Swett 25-0, while Pittsburg's Pirates scuttled Antioch's Panthers in a deluge of touchdowns, 39-13.

The Pirate victory indicates that the Pitt team has found itself and will be tough to beat from here on out.

Diablo holds the lead, being in the undefeated class, but has a tough row to hoe.

It will meet Pittsburg, Antioch and Acalanes, in that order. Any one of these games might upset Diablo's applecart.

IN COAST COLLEGE circles the stunner was Stanford's comeback storybook finish which caught UCLA on the short end of a 21-20 count.

Abolishment of the platoon system was a big factor here, as Coach Sanders removed his ace halfback, Cameron, and couldn't get him back in the game until it was too late.

Offensive play has had the advantage, with the loss of defensive units as separate group specialists.

Defense is looser as a result, and the offense has more of a chance to ramble.

Some players have been unable to adjust to going both ways. A prime example of this is a player at USC who was first-string linebacker last season and now rests, practically forgotten, down on the fourth string.

IN LOCAL PREP circles one of the main items of conversation is the future division of the league.

Something must be done soon, as more schools are coming into being and the league will soon be too large.

A meeting scheduled for early November will probably make tentative plans for dividing the league into at least two sections, which will probably be based on enrollment.

A good guess is that such a division will come about by 1955.

That would mean in football next year the league will stand as now, plus Las Lomas and Pleasant Hill.

Each club will have a bye, and no practice games will be scheduled.

What might happen is a football pageant, with all eight clubs playing a quarter, much as is done in San Francisco each year.

Such an affair would at least give some game play before the opening league game.

Coaches of the county will meet Monday night at Diablo to propose a schedule for next year and make recommendations to the principals regarding future league play.

AN INTERESTING SIDELIGHT of the San Jose-Cal game was the duel between Sam Dawson of San Jose, who formerly played at Pittsburg, and Cal's Lloyd Torchio, who backed up the line.

Lloyd, a former Acalanes All-County center, met up with Sam on several occasions, one in particular on the Cal goal line stand when Lloyd stopped Sam dead in his tracks on the 6-inch line.

Dawson, a sophomore, played some excellent offensive and defensive ball of his own.

Another ex-Contra Costa prep player who participated was Tommy Kramer of Diablo, who did a bit of halfbacking for Cal and came within inches of scoring a touchdown on the final play of the game.

Acalanes Varsity Upset by Albany Gridders, 20-12

Flatter than a pancake was the Acalanes Varsity last Friday afternoon, and as a result it was defeated by the Albany Cougars, 20-12.

It was one of those days when the Dons could do no right.

Albany capitalized on every break, largely due to the fact that the Cougars simply outhustled the Dons, who played their poorest game of the season to date, offensively and defensively.

ON THE OPENING kickoff, Albany took the ball on the 7 and came back to the 23, only to fumble on the first running play, with the Dons recovering on the 30.

The story of the game was pretty much told in the next series of plays.

Acalanes failed to gain, threw an incomplete pass, was penalized for offside, made two yards up the midde and lost the ball on fourth down when the Dons hit for another two off tackle, to have Albany take over on downs.

FROM THERE ON in it was all Albany the rest of the half.

The Cougars scored two touchdowns, the first on a 60-yard drive on five plays and the next with seconds on the clock.

Albany's touchdown No. 2 came as the result of halfback McDonald's catching the ball while on his knees on the 1-foot line after two Don defenders had batted an attempted pass down.

ON THE NEXT PLAY Albany scored and, as a result of Cougar splitting of the uprights on both conversion kicks, the Acalanes eleven left the field with a 14-0 deficit.

In the second half, Acalanes showed a spark of life.

The Dons took the kickoff, and Richie Munn carried the ball from the 12 back to the 40.

A pass play for conversion missed its mark, and the score stood 14-6.

THE DONS WERE BACK in the ball game, but not for long.

Albany came right back on the ensuing kickoff and went 60 yards on a march that took 11 plays to score another 6. When the placement kick was blocked, it was 20-6.

The Dons made it a repeat act when they took the next kickoff and in 11 plays scored again, only to miss converting when a bad pass from center fouled up the works.

THE REST OF the game was played in midfield, with Albany controlling the ball.

The loss dropped the Dons to second place in league standings.

Autumn Offers Many Opportunities for Garden Chores–Here Are Some Pointers

By BERT WRIGHT

LEAVES, GARDEN REFUSE and spent flower stalks are a valuable source of humus for next year's garden, so don't put them on the curb for the rubbish man to haul away.

Instead, if you haven't already started a compost heap, just pile this material in an out of the way corner, throwing a few shovelsfull of soil on each layer, then sprinkling with plant food.

It will take a year for composts started now to rot down but it is worth waiting for as a soil conditioner and mulching material.

DON'T LET frost kill your geraniums; put them in pots and bring them indoors for propogating stock.

Prune them 'way back so that the new growth resulting will make good cuttings for rooting late in the winter.

These can be started in any window receiving half a day's sunlight.

PICK OFF the green tomatoes before frosts arrive and spread them out on boards in a cold frame or on window sills.

There they will continue to ripen for several weeks.

DIG UP DAHLIAS, gladiolus, tuberous begonias and cannas.

Allow them to dry and then store them in sand or vermiculite.

IF YOUR HOUSE plants have been vacationing out of doors, don't let Jack Frost put an abrupt end to their lives as well as their vacation.

PLANT WINTER annuals - snapdragons, pansies, violas, and stocks.

Set out freesias, ranunculus and anemones.

Sermon Includes Biblical Verses

In the Lesson-Sermon on "Probation after Death" to be read in all Christian Science churces Sunday, verses from 13 books of the Bible will be used, including this passage from Philippians:

"Rejoice in the Lard adway: and again I say, Rejoice. Let your moderation be known unto all men. The Lord is at hand" (4:4, 5).

Correlative citations will be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, one of which will be the following:

"We can, and uitimately shall, so rise as to avail ourselves in every direction of the supremacy of Truth over error, Life over death, and good over evil, and this growth will go on until we arrive at the fulness of God's idea, and no more fear that we shall be sick and die" (p. 406).

SN Efforts Need Coordination

Interest of state and county officials in possible acquisition of Sacramento Northern Railroad facilities underscores the importance, to this area, of Western Pacific Railroad's plans to abandon its SN tracks from 40th Street and Shafter Avenue, Oakland, to West Lafayette station.

It also serves to justify further the concern of this area over the abandonment proposal — and to stimulate hopes and efforts for future use of Sacramento Northern property for some form of revived rail commute service or of freeway development or rapid transit.

However, it is disturbing to note that the expressed interest of Contra Costa officials and state highway engineers apparently is another example of lack of coordination on a problem of vital concern to the people.

The county, it appears, is primarily interested in possibility of obtaining the Sacramento Northern roadbed for the county road system.

The state's interest seems mainly in connection with routing the Shepherd Canyon Freeway and with whether the Sacramento Northern tunnel is usable in this project.

It should be obvious that the closest coordination on this problem by the county and state would make any negotiations with Western Pacific more effective, with the best prospect of success for the needs of Central Contra Costa County.

Another key factor is the study being undertaken by the Bay Area Rapid Transit Commission.

H. L. Cummings, chairman of the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors and representative of the Second Supervisorial District on the County Board, is a member of the Rapid Transit Commission.

Certainly, the efforts of this county and the state regarding Sacramento Northern should be carefully coordinated with the deliberations of the Rapid Transit Commission.

It is true that the County Highway Department works closely with Cummings and the entire Board of Supervisors. But the urgency of maximum cooperation and coordination for Sacramento Northern solution — and the tying-in of such coordination with state and Rapid Transit Commission moves — cannot be overstressed.

WHO SAYS YOU CAN'T SWITCH THEM? This is a cut-away view of plans for switching monorail cars. The drawing was prepared for The SUN by the Monorail Corporation in answer to claims by critics that the cars can't be switched. The drawing shows the new box girder type of construction now planned by the company after recent acquisition of its patent. Cars will be suspended on four-wheel trucks as shown at right.

What They Say . . .

What Do You Think of Our Stores?

With Christmas time approaching and the fall season already here, the accent is more and more on shopping.

With this in mind, The SUN this week phoned local people to ask them, "What one thing would you suggest for local stores to improve their selling and merchandising?"

The answers pin-pointed area troubles, such as parking in Orinda, but then, see for yourself.

Here are the comments:

MRS. JACK MOLESWORTH, 2 Glorietta Court, Orinda, said, "There's the question of parking. I feel that I would rather drive to San Francisco than try to park in Orinda. Improving parking facilities would be my suggestion for the greatest improvement in shopping here."

MRS. RONALD OLSON, Las Huertas Road, Lafayette, said, "I would like to see a writing board with a pencil attached where housewives could put down items which they haven't found in the store . . . you know, unuual brands they like and things like that. That is my recommendation for the biggest help in Lafayette shopping."

MALCOLM SAGENKAHN of 155 Adria Drive in Pleasant Hill suggested more "enthusiastic" selling to give a customer confidence in the products being sold. He said he bought some paint recently that turned out to be very good but came within a hair's breadth of not buying because the salesman seemed unsure of it.

He also suggested better promotions with good bargains "that mean something."

MRS. ODIE MONOHAN, 79 Loma Vista Drive, Orinda, said, "More parking space is the important thing. Most everyone has children and you don't like to leave them a block and a half from the stores while you shop.

"One other thing I think would be a real help is a 'short counter' in the grocery stores. A place where the person with only one or two items — say a maximum of five — could have his articles checked quickly without standing behind someone with a $20 order."

HENRY E. OLSEN, 3780 Mosswood Drive, Lafayette, commented, "A little more personalized service is the answer. We have been trading at the same store week in and week out and it is my opinion that there isn't that friendly feeling that should be there — you're just another customer."

Mrs. Bud Gaubatz of 1625 Shirley Drive in Pleasant Hill said, "I happen to shop locally and am well satisfied." She added if she thought about it for some time she might come up with a suggestion, but by and large, she feels they are doing a good job.

A. J. HIRTLER of 1671 Newell Avenue in Walnut Creek said he thinks they should give more consideration to customers from a human relations standpoint. He said that sometime he had the feeling the merchant felt he were doing the customer a favor, instead of vice versa. He added that things are improving in that line here.

Edith Dinkin of 1430 Boulevard Way in Walnut Creek prefaced her remarks saying, "Of course, I always tie things in with art." She suggested merchants work with local artists and display their work. She added a laundromat in Berkeley had done just that and improved their business a great deal.

Grange Asks Rapid Transport Action

The County Board of Supervisors was urged to "thoroughly investigate" rapid transit proposals and the retention of Sacramento Northern Rainroad tracks in resolutions passed by Contra Costa Pomona Grange meeting in Danville last week.

Because "inadequate transportation" has ill effects on the county's economic and employment levels the Grange passed the resolutions.

The rapid transit resolution asked that the board "immediately and thoroughly investigate rapid transit proposals and take stetps with other public agencies to find a solution for this serious problem."

Letter to the Editor

Mr. Harry L. Morrison Jr.,
Executive Director
Contra Costa County Taxpayers' Association
820 Las Juntas
Martinez, Calif.

Dear Mr. Morrison:

I am addressing this letter directly to you, in answer to a letter from Mr. Van M. Williams to Mr. Herman Silverman, editor of The SUN, with a copy to the Contra Costa County Taxpayers' Association, since the SUN has inquired as to the subject matter of the letter as well as your organization, and a courtesy copy of my letter is being sent to Mr. Van M. Williams.

As you know, the policy of the Highway Department is to reconstruct and repair roads throughout the county, and there are many miles of roads needing such work, along the priority of need, which is estimated by the number of users and the condition of the road.

HOWEVER, we do have within the county many old roads which have been in the county for scores of years, for the condition of which the county is responsible, and these roads must be repaired along with other roads under the policy mentioned above.

The work being done on Camino Pablo will not cost 30 to 35 thousand dollars but will cost in the approximate neighborhood of 10 thousand dollars and includes the improving of drainage, stabilization and a double seal, which project, when accomplished, will give safe service for many years to come.

WE HAVE BEEN advised in writing, by registered mail, by owners along the road that the road is hazardous, and the road is not up to the standard of even a minimum road, and this matter has been discussed with the district attorney's office.

In view of the possibility of an accident along the road we would have no recourse in the matter, so it was thought best that the road be improved, even with a minimum amount of usage.

SUCH REPAIR work is of a limited nature, as contrasted to the amount spent on more important roads, and it is a difficult problem each year to determine which roads should be reconstructed and which roads improved with the limited amount of funds for the accomplishment of such work.

I trust the above comments will give you the broad outline of the picture, and would be happy to discuss this matter with yourself and either of the individuals to whom a copy of this letter is being mailed.

We feel that, in the five-year period in which we anticipate the bond issue projects will be constructed and in which other roads will be improved, we can offer definite proof to yourself and other organizations that there has been an improvement in safety and structural condition on many present roads, with a steady decrease in maintenance costs per mile.

Very truly yours,
Victor W. Sauer,
Road Commissioner

cc Mr. Herman Silverman
Mr. Van M. Williams

Dear Editor:

May I suggest a special feature for your paper which should be of considerable interest to almost all your readers?

Over a year ago the people of Contra Costa County voted a bond issue of approximately $10,000,000 to repair and rebuild a number of key roads in our county.

By this time undoubtedly substantial progress has been made on some of these proects. Why not include periodically in your paper what might be called a "box score" showing the status of each of the projects that were contemplated at the time of the bond issue?

I suggest this because very little publicity has been given to the program of the road construction work provided by the bond issue.

Perhaps it is only because I do not read the right newspapers. At any rate, certainly many people are interested in this work, and your paper could provide a service in giving us this information.

EUGENE B. REID,
34 Daryl Drive,
Orinda.

(Editor's note: Mr. Reid's suggestion is excellent. The SUN has been doing just what he suggests—publishing from time to time, progress reports on the road bond program.)

Condon Criticizes Republican Congress

Congressman Robert L. Condon of Walnut Creek who represents Solano and Contra Costa Counties, last Friday criticized the Republican dominated Congress for their failure to carry out the pledges made to the people during the 1952 campaign.

Condon spoke at a dinner party by the Richmond Political and Social Club at the Harry Ells School. A letter was read from Adlai Stevenson in which he stated that he was extremely sorry that he could not be present but that prior commitments of long standing kept him from being on the West Coast at this time .

Under The Sun

By HERMAN SILVERMAN

A man's best friend is his dog. But an editor's best friend is his scissors.

On my desk are three newspaper clips about which I'd like to chat today.

Supervisors and signs

Here is the first:

"The board of supervisors generally agreed that the erection of unauthorized 'children at play' signs will be discouraged in the future.

"County Traffic Engineer Basil Andrews pointed out the signs are in violation of the California Vehicle Code, and they are likely to give both children and parents a false sense of security, since it is doubtful they have much effect on traffic.

"Desmond M. Teeter, county administrator, said the only way to prevent children from being struck by auotos was to keep them from playing in the street."

After reading the story, I thought about the hundreds of "Slow—Children at Play" signs that our residents have posted the past few years. Walnut Creek Lions Club sold them several years ago and then their supply was exhausted.

Because of the great need The SUN had the higns fabricated and sold them at cost ($2). Signs are still available at our offices.

Our county officials certailny have some sound arguments. If too many signs are posted, they become less effective and drivers could be confused by too many different kinds of signs. That is the reason for the state law prohibiting them—a law not enforced.

I don't believe the supervisors are aware of road conditions in our area when they discussed the problem. Our curved, sometimes winding streets without sidewalks present a different picture. A slow sign, strategically placed, might mean the difference between life and death for your child or mine.

A few months ago I erected a sign in front of our house. This has not given us a false sense of security. We remind the three kids to stay out of the street and they are careful. But we think the sign might slow down a few of the fast drivers.

What do you think?

Freedom and Security

Here is a clip, datelined Mt. Clemens, Mich., Oct. 14:

"A 10th Air Force board of three colonels recommended that Lt. Milo Radulovich be discharged from the reserve and that all commissions held by him be terminated. However, the headquarters emphasized that his loyalty was not questioned.

"Activities of his father and sister were questioned. The father was accused of having been a subscriber to a 'radical' newspaper and the sister of having engaged in 'picket line activities.'

"The Air Force claimed young Radulovich had maintained a 'close and continuing' association with his father and sister. Two fellow workers of the father at the Hudson plant testified they knew the father as a loyal American.

"The decision came because I told the board I didn't think it was in my province to tell my sister what her politics should be," Radulovich said. "This is the same kind of decision you would have expected from the Nazi army."

"Radulovich's attorney will appeal to the highest command."

¼ I wonder if this news affects you the way it did me. I've studied the nation's investigations and exposes with mixed emotions. I abhor McCarthy and his methods. And yet I realize that he has uncovered a great deal.

The nation's security must come first. But must we have witch hunts, name calling, persucition by committee? Will we lose many precious freedoms while we are trying to protect them?

Isn't there a middle road?

What do you think?

Pinball and recreation

Here's a short item taken from the newsletter of the Contra Costa Park and Recreation Council. It's signed by Alvin A. Burton, chairman, and edited by his wife Mary.

The story refers to the current debate before the county supervisors —whether to pass an ordinance prohibiting children from playing pin ball machines.

"Have you followed the pin-ball battle? I'm not being facetious. The issue is too important for that. The important point is Clyde Evans of the TriCity News is quoted as saying he knew of no civic organization which had urged passage of the ordinance to prohibit the playing of pin-ball machines by minors.

"Judge Donald Creedon says: 'It is a sad commentary when we have to call pin-ball machines a necessary means of amusement for youngsters of any age level.' If you or any of your organizations have an opinion on this problem write to your supervisors!"

Not much commen needed, except our sheriff and D. A. have more or less opposed it.

Pinballs and trouble

Speaking of pinball games, I had lunch last week with the fellow who owns the illegal multiple-play pinball machines in this area. It was at his suggestion that we get together and talk things over. He is a nice fellow and has his problems.

Wise shoppers patronize hometown merchants. They save money — and they know that the hometown merchant is interested in the community.
